Department of Economics
Online Workshop on Copyright and Trade Secrets
Report

The Department of Economics organized an insightful online workshop on Copyright and Trade Secrets on the 15th June, 2020. This workshop was conducted through the Zoom platform. The resource person for the event was Dr. R.G. Rasal from Padmshri Vikhe Patil College, Pravaranagar.

The session began with an introduction by Dr. A. G. Antre, the coordinator of the workshop, who welcomed the participants and introduced Dr. Rasal. During the workshop, Dr. R. G. Rasal provided a comprehensive overview of copyright laws and the concept of trade secrets, explaining their relevance in safeguarding intellectual property in various industries. The students actively participated in the session, gaining valuable knowledge on how these legal tools are used to protect creative and confidential business information.

The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Dr. J. R. Dighe, Head of the Department of Economics, who expressed appreciation to Dr. R. G. Rasal for sharing his expertise. A total of 59 participants attended the workshop, making the event a resounding success.
