Workshops On

Patent and Patent Filing

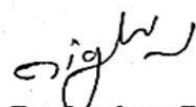

Report

The Department of Economics organized an informative workshop on "Patents and Patent Filing," on January 28, 2020, which was attended by 65 students of Arts and Commerce faculty. The session was conducted by Dr. Mohsin Tamboli from PIRENS MBA College, Loni, who provided expert guidance on the intricate aspects of patents and the patent filing process.

Dr. Tamboli began the workshop with an introduction to patents, explaining their fundamental role in protecting intellectual property. He detailed the different types of patents, including utility patents, design patents, and plant patents, and discussed their specific applications and importance in safeguarding innovations. The workshop then proceeded with a thorough explanation of the patent filing process.

The workshop concluded with an interactive Q and A session, where Dr. Tamboli addressed various queries from the participants. The discussion covered specific challenges related to patent filings and strategies for protecting intellectual property on an international scale, providing valuable insights tailored to the students' interests and concerns.

The students appreciated Dr. Tamboli's clear and engaging presentation, as well as the practical examples that made the complex subject matter more accessible. The workshop organized by the Department of Economics, Dr. J. R. Dighe Introduced the speaker and Ms. P. G. Bothe proposed the vote of thanks.
